

The Real Thing in Fall Styles This Year is the Close Shoulder and Snug Coat

That is what the right dressers are wearing in the style centers. These close-fitting coats are a change from the looser hanging styles of the last few seasons, but they have an advantage in giving you a trim, well set up look.

We are in a position to show you both styles, the snug and the looser fashion. It is up to you to choose, but we hope that some of you will take a try at the snug coat. STEIN-BLOCH make the ones we are proudest of.

Minto Opera Company at Nevada Theatre Tonight

Miss Mabel E. Baker, Prima Donna, at the Nevada Theatre tonight.

"The production of 'The Merry Whirl' at the Nevada theatre last night proved an even greater success than did the opening play of this excellent company and fully established the popular approval. The solid basis of popular approval, the large audience was kept in most splendid humor throughout the evening and one constant round of laughter and applause greeted every sally of wit, and each of the many musical numbers were so neatly enmeshed.

Miss Baker, as Mlle. Calenza, was in excellent voice, and again wore several beautiful gowns. Her "Canta" was splendidly rendered, as were also the other songs that were given by her.

"Teddy" Martin, the winsome soubrette, sang "Billy" most acceptably and with Herald Pollard in "How-do-do" made one of the song hits of the performance.

"I'm Going Back to Reno," given by Miss Marjorie Dalton, was of the brightest sports of "The Merry Whirl" and her hearers called for several more verses than there is in the song.

Mr. Chase was, of course, a favorite and his magnificent voice is one that will long be remembered in Tonopah. Great credit must be given to the beauty chorus for their most creditable work, which added greatly to the safety of the production.

Tonight a comedy of an entirely different style than either play yet presented will be given. "The Girl From Paris" is a snappy, stunning French light opera and with a very interesting story running through it. The plot centers around Julie Bon Bon, a gay Parisienne, who with an old miser, Auguste Pomplé, succeed in exhorting a promise of marriage from a foolish old Englishman, Ebenezer Honeycomb, while on his first visit to gay Paris, and who while "seeing the sights" meets Julie at an after-the-theatre supper.

Realizing that he has been bamboozled by the fair lady, he hastens home on the Thames, where he is followed by Bon Bon, who in a breach of promise suit institutes a verdict for 10,000 pounds. Honeycomb goes to Schoffen-bergen and here the Englishman is published in a family immediately set out for a supposed death. Mrs. Honeycomb learns of her husband's perfidy and renounces him, but her daughter, Nora, and her fiancée, Tom, finally prevail upon her to forgive the husband, and all ends well.

The music in "The Girl From Paris" is bright and snappy, the chorus work is of the best and the costumes and scenic effect are new and elaborate. Tomorrow evening will be the final appearance of this company in Tonopah.

LAST RESPECTS ARE PAID TO DEAD FRENCH SAILORS

TOULON, France, October 4.—A wreath with a broad ribbon of black was today placed in the name of the American navy on the caskets of the Liberte's dead in the arsenal by the naval attaché of the American embassy, Commander Henry Hough.

The obsequies for those who lost their lives when the battleship was destroyed by an explosion and fire in the harbor September 25, were held today.

They began with a requiem mass at the church of St. Louis, celebrated by the Archbishop of Frejus. At the conclusion of these rites 168 caskets containing only the bodies that had been identified, were placed upon 24 gun carriages, seven to a carriage. The chief mourner, resident Fallieres, was followed by members of the embassy, the presidents of two chambers of commerce, deputations from the municipality of Paris and other large municipalities, and the foreign naval attaches.

In front of the cathedral lining the pressure of the troops as rudely square. The procession was those disturbed by the crush of the ministers and other high officials endeavored to calm the storm, but despite their efforts President Fallieres and the carriages containing several ministers were completely separated from the cortege for some time.

At the arsenal funeral orations were delivered by President Fallieres, the minister of marine, M. Del Case and others.

At the close of these services the bodies were transported for burial to the places from which the men had been recruited. The unidentified dead and portions of the bodies of more than forty men were buried in the cemetery of Toulon.
